McGraw's Rural New-Yorker.

Is the leading Agricultural, Literary and Family Newspaper, having a far larger circulation than any similar journal in the world! It combines in its Agricultural, Horticultural, Scientific, Literary, Educational, Miscellaneous, and News Department, a greater number of Practical, Useful, Entertaining, and Timely Topics, than any other periodical, while it is, beyond dispute, the first of its class in Merit, Usefulness and Popularity. The Rural is published weekly, quarto form, illustrated and printed in best style, at $2 a year. Reduction to clubs, and great inducements to agents, &c., including Liberal Premiums, Specimens, Premium Lists, &c., sent free; give us your address. A new quarter commences April 5, and hence now is the time to subscribe. Registered letters at our risk, if addressed to

Waverly Magazine.

For Family Amusement and Instruction.

EDITED BY MOSES A. DOW.
This paper is the largest weekly ever published in this country. Its contents are such as will be approved in the most fastidious circles—nothing immoral being admitted into its pages. It will furnish as much reading matter as almost any one can find time to peruse, consisting of Tales, History, Biography, together with poetry and music. The paper contains no ultra sentiments, and meddles neither with politics nor religion, but is characterized by a high moral tone. It circulates all over the country, from Maine to California. The terms by mail are very low, as will be seen by the following terms:

The "Waverly Magazine" is published weekly by Moses A. Dow, 12 Water street, Boston, Mass.

Two editions are printed, one on thick paper for periodical dealers, at 6 cents per copy, and an edition for mail subscribers, (on a little thinner paper) so as to come within the low postage law) at $2 a year, or $1 for six months, always in advance. Clubs by mail, six papers six months, $5—paper stopped when the last number paid for is sent.

A new number commences every July and January, but if a person commences at any particular number in this volume, and pays for six months, he will have a volume complete with the title page as every paper is complete in itself.

When a subscriber orders a renewal of his subscription he should tell us what number he received last, then we shall know what number to renew with, without hunting over our books. Otherwise we shall begin when the money is received.

Persons writing for this paper should write their name, postoffice, county and State very distinctly—Those who wish their papers changed should tell where it has previously been sent. Postage on this paper is 25 cents a year, payable in advance at the office of delivery.

Change—Clubs must always be sent at one time to receive a premium. We cannot send them at the club prices unless received all together, as it is too much trouble to look over our books, or keep account with each one getting them off.

Any one sending us four dollars, can have one copy of the "Waverly Magazine," and either of the following works for one year by mail: Graham's magazine, Gold's Lady's Book, Harper's magazine, Putnam's magazine, Ladies' Gazette or Fashion, Ballou's Pictorial.

All letter and communications concerning the paper should be addressed to the publisher of the paper.

Any one sending us five subscribers for one year, or ten for six months—with ten dollars in either case, shall receive a new and splendid likeness of Daniel Webster, a large and beautiful picture 20 by 20 inches, which sells for $5. It represents him as he appeared when delivering his famous speech on March 7th, 1850. It gives his full form and attitude and is considered the best likeness of that great man that has ever been published. We will send it by mail, postpaid.

THE DOLLAR NEWSPAPER.

Only one dollar per year to single subscribers—ANOTHER ORIGINAL NOVELLETTE.—In order to accommodate all who wish to begin with the beginning of our next original Novellette, "The Border Rover," by Emerson Bennett, Esq., we have decided to defer it a few weeks until those wishing to perfect their clubs shall have time to do so. Say until about the first of July, when our half year commences.

The Dollar Newspaper. Is made up with special reference to the family circle.—At aims to interest, instruct and amuse. News and substantial information are its prominent characteristics. With monster machines, capable of printing each 20,000 copies per hour, its columns can be held open for news each week to within a few hours of the date of publication. It is thus enabled to publish the latest and most reliable market reports, and to give a greater amount of general business information for the low subscription price "One Dollar per Year," than any other family paper gives for two dollars.

The Farm and the Farmer. The Agricultural Department of the "Newspaper," is spiritedly maintained by contribution, from practical farmers, and by thousands of readers this department is considered one of the most important features of the paper. Theoretical and practical agriculture, thus blended and compressed weekly into a short space cannot fail to interest and profit readers.

The following are the terms per year: Only one dollar per year to single subscribers; Clubs of six for $5, of thirteen $10, of twenty $15, of thirty-seven $20, of thirty-four $25, of fifty $35, of seventy-five $50.

Our friends, for their own profit, and our convenience, will oblige by handing in as early as possible their club lists. For the small sum of one dollar, or less, fifty two numbers of the paper are given, containing in the aggregate fourteen hundred and fifty-six compact and closely printed columns, equal to six thousand two hundred book pages, or about twenty-two volumes of the common library size of three hundred pages each. Only think of it! Twenty-two volumes of reading—fresh, and most of it original, for less than one dollar!

No subscribers acknowledged unless accompanied with the money.

SOMETHING NEW!
JUST OPENED
A NEW DRUG STORE!

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received from Philadelphia, and offers FOR SALE at his Drug Store, on the north west Corner of the Public Square in Panola, the largest and best selected stock of DRUGS, CHEMICALS, &c., that has ever been brought to this portion of the country. His assortment consists of every thing usually kept in a first-class country

DRUG STORE, and it is his intention, should he meet with sufficient encouragement, always to keep on hand, every article in his line, which the wants of the people may demand.—Having practiced medicine for some time in this region of country, and having thus acquired some insight into its diseases, he hopes that on that account he is better able to know what medicines the diseases peculiar to the country, may require. He has likewise on hand a large and varied assortment of PERFUMERY, FANCY SOAP, HAIR DYE, &c., fresh from the celebrated manufactory of Messrs. Jules Haue & Co., of Philadelphia, to which he begs leave particularly to call the attention of the Ladies.

His terms for cash, or on a credit to such persons as he knows to be responsible, will be reasonable.

Prospectus.

To Mechanics, Inventors and Manufacturers.

ELEVENTH YEAR.

Prospectus of the Scientific American. This work differs materially from other publications being an Illustrated Periodical, devoted chiefly to the promulgation of information relating to the various mechanics and Chemie Arts, manufactures, Agriculture, Patents, Inventions, Engineering, mill-work and all interests which the high of practical Science is calculated to advance.

Every Number of the Scientific American contains eight large pages of reading abundantly illustrated with engravings—all of them engraved expressly for this publication.

Reports of United States patents granted, are also published every week, including Official Copies of all the patent claims. These Claims are published in the Scientific American in advance of all other papers.

This publication differs entirely from the magazines and papers which flood the country. It is a weekly journal of Art, Science and mechanics, having for its object, the advancement of the interests of mechanics, manufacturers and inventors. Each number is illustrated with from five to ten original engravings of new mechanical inventions; nearly all of the best inventions which are patented at Washington being illustrated in the Scientific American.

The Scientific American is the most popular journal of the kind ever published and of more importance to the interests of mechanics and inventors than any thing they could possibly obtain. To Farmers it is also particularly useful, as it will apprise them of all Agricultural improvements, instruct them in various mechanical Trades, &c., &c.

219 Main street, Memphis, Tennessee.

ARE ASTONISHING THE WORLD!

With their NEW and VALUABLE PROCESS of making LIFE-SIZED Portraits, direct upon Canvases, and colored in Oil, by one of the first artists in the country.

They have been to great expense in procuring the exclusive right for making these celebrated Photographs on canvases, and having fitted up an entire new STUDIO for this branch of the Art, they are prepared to execute all orders sent to them by mail from Daguerreotypes, or any other kind of picture that may be sent.

In copying from a Daguerreotype a look of hair should accompany the picture, with a full description of color of hair, eyes, complexion, etc.—all pictures warranted perfect likenesses. This is the only opportunity of securing a life-like picture from a faint resemblance of a dear friend. Being colored in oil upon canvas it is imperishable. Persons visiting the city should not fail to visit PARK & PELOW'S Studio of FINE ARTS, where all kinds of PICTURES known in the art, are made in the most perfect style and finish.
